

Cambodian PM, Prasad
discuss digital projects

NEW DELHI

Cambodian Prime Minister Hun Sen on Wednesday met Minister for Electronics and IT Ravi Shankar Prasad to discuss digital initiatives undertaken by India including the soil health card and the biometric project Aadhaar. Emerging from the 30-minute meeting, Mr. Prasad said India was "seriously considering" opening a Centre of Excellence on IT in Cambodia and that the Centre for Development of Advanced Computing (CDAC) was working on it.
